

These pegs will help align the wall layers, so try to work quickly before the glue between layers dries!

Dead end pieces are designed to be placed anywhere you need them, so don't glue them into your corridor pieces for maximum flexibility!